

How to contact your Osage Minerals Council

The Osage Minerals Council is receptive to comments, inquiries, and suggestions made by Osage Shareholder's. For the best results in having your message reach all 8 Council members the following protocol is advisable.

1. Email: you may send your email directly to the following email boxes for these Council members: Sonny Abbott; Curtis Bear; Cynthia Boone; Galen Crum; Myron RedEagle; Andrew Yates. (Melvin Core receives it via: [mmckim@osage tribe.org](mailto:mmckim@osage tribe.org)) I am always willing to receive emails on behalf of any Council person and will place a copy in their mail box for you.
2. Mail: You can mail all of them at: PO Box 779, Pawhuska, OK 74056. In doing so the staff is happy to assist by making copies of your letter and placing it in each box.
3. The following contact numbers for the council are provided for your use:

4. Do's and Don'ts:

Do give your full name. Do state you are a current Osage Shareholder. Do state a return address for a response. Do state the specific issue you are writing about: ie; lawsuit; speaking engagement; invitation; or a troubling issue etc. Do state what your opinion on the issue is. Do state what the ideal outcome would be, in your opinion.

Don't forward emails from other people. If the subject matter is one you support then restate it and sign your own name. Don't use abusive comments or threatening language.

4. There are council persons that will not read items sent which have been forwarded. There are council persons that throw away correspondence that is abusive or threatening in nature. If you really want to be heard, then remember the manner in which you would like to be responded to and the council will be happy to hear from you.
